My Future Wife

Walk-through - Prologue

Story Plot: Do you believe in time travel? If you don't, let me tell you my story. Well, I'm just a normal 19-year-old guy. The only special thing about me is I can travel... 30 seconds into the future. I don't know why. It just started to happen when I masturbated the very first time. When I stare at anything without blinking (at that time, I focused on the girl's boobs when I was watching porn), I can see what will happen in the next 30 seconds. And my story starts on the day that Ha-Young, a girl in my university, asks me if she should participate in a beauty contest. I motivate her, trying to be cool. But after I look into her eyes for a few seconds, I see myself in a far future. And, wow! Ha-Young will become my wife. But... The future is so fragile. It can be changed by just a small mistake...

At the start of Episode 01, you can choose to play as the MC or as Ha-Young.

If you play as the MC, depending on your choices, the game will lead you to one of these routes:

> Romance & Harem: You will live with only one girl (Romance) or more (Harem) at the end of the story.

- Sharing: You share the girls with other men.
- > NTR: You are cuckolded.

If you play as Ha-Young, depending on your choices, the game will lead you to one of these routes:

- > Faithful: Ha-Young stays faithful to you.
- Swinging: Ha-Young agrees to swap couples.
- > Corruption: Ha-Young is corrupted and cheats on you.
