About

Ravager

Ravager is a role-playing game where you play a young dragon, determined to reclaim their birthright. To do so, you will need to build your power, ally with dark forces, evade justice, and whet your monstrous appetites. This game contains content of a pornographic nature and is explicitly adult only.

Navigating this Walkthrough

You can use the document outline to move to the section of the walkthrough you want.

The first section of the walkthrough handles basic mechanics and menus. If you're already familiar with Ren'Py games, you only need to look at the Mechanics subsection.

The Walkthrough section presents the content of the game in sequential order, with breakdowns of requirements and gains along the way.

The last section presents you with more complete information for individual characters, factions, and scenes.

Gameplay

Game Mode

When you start a new game, you will be able to choose your difficulty:

- In Dark Fantasy mode, you will have to manage your stats and make difficult choices to succeed.
- In Power Fantasy mode, the content is the same but you will always succeed at stat checks, and cannot die or run out of resources.

Controls

Primary Controls

Progress Scene: Individual scenes play out in a visual novel format, much like reading a book. The narrator will describe the scene and characters will have dialogue. To progress from one page to the next, you can use either of the below methods.

- Mouse: Click anywhere on the screen (except the menu) to progress to the next page.
- Keyboard: Press the spacebar to progress to the next page.

Option Select: As you progress through scenes, you will be given choices as to what your character will do.

- Mouse: You can use the mouse to select an option.
- Keyboard: You can also use the arrow keys to highlight an option. You can then press the ENTER key to select the option.
- Touchscreen: If you are playing on a touchscreen device, you can just click the option you want.

Stat Gain: A number of actions will increase your stats. The game will inform you with a darkened page telling you which stat has been increased. For more information regarding stats, see Section Base Stats.

Stat Checks: If you are playing in Dark Fantasy mode, there are a number of options that will require you to possess a minimum number of points in a given stat to be able to succeed. They will be marked with the prerequisite stat in parenthesis at the end of the option's text. Be warned that failing checks can result in Wounds or even immediate Game Over. For more information regarding Stats or Wounds, see Section Gameplay.

Custom Input: There are a number of characters that can have dynamic names, input by the player. These names are not voice acted, but can add customized flavor to your game. There is an option in the Preferences Menu to disable this feature. For more information on Preferences, see Section Preferences.

Gameplay Menu

Back Button: In the game menu at the bottom of the screen, the Back button will undo the last thing you did. It's very useful if you want to see all the outcomes a scene can have, or if you feel like you've made a mistake. However, you can only go back a certain amount of times in a row (50 or so). The hotkey for this control is the mouse wheel. If you scroll your mouse wheel up, it functions as the back button. If you scroll down, you move forward up to the point of the most recent slide.

Skip: You will fast forward through previously seen content. This will automatically stop at an option select. The hotkey for this action is the TAB key. If you want a bit more control, you can hold the CTRL key, which fast forwards until you let go. Rapidly skipping text can cause visual errors, due to limitations of the RenPy engine.

Status/Save/Load/Prefs: Opens the relevant page in the pause menu.

Hide: Hides the UI until you click or press spacebar. Great for taking screenshots.

Pause Menu

The Pause Menu has a number of pages that provide useful information. You can access this menu at any time by hitting the ESCAPE key.

Certain options bring up important informational pages. For more information on Status, Save, Load, or Preferences, see their relevant sections below.

Main Menu: Returns to the Main Menu. You will be prompted regarding unsaved progress.

About: Shows the game version and credits.

Walkthrough: Opens this walkthrough in your default web browser.

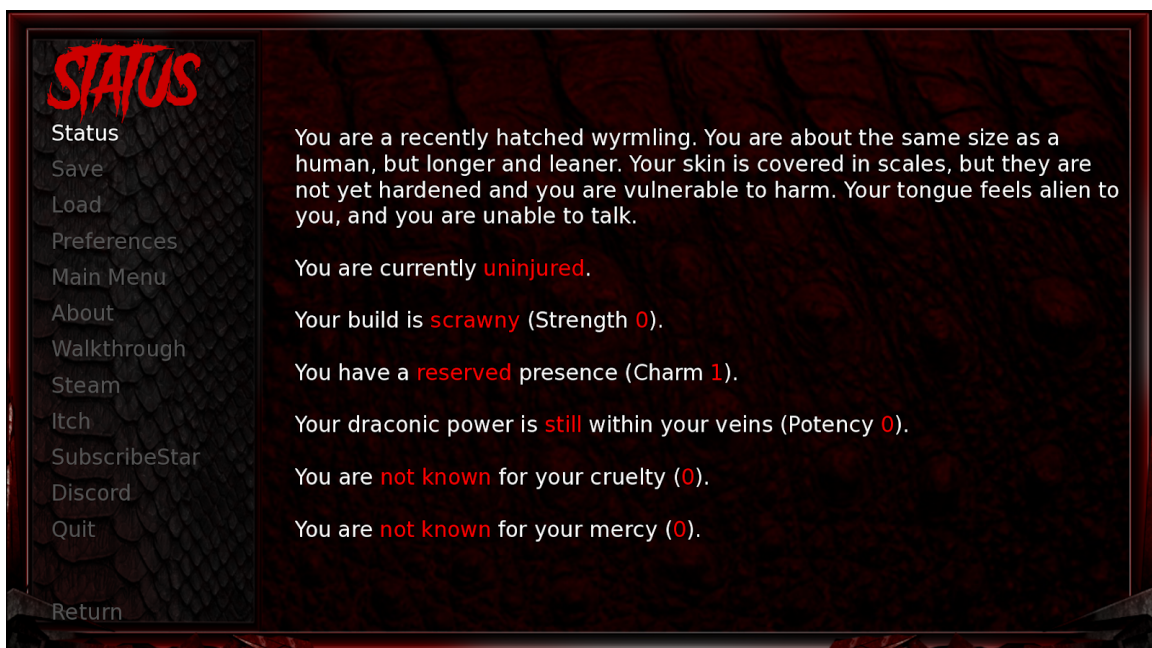

Steam/Itch/SubscribeStar: Opens the related service's webpage in your default web browser. Some of these options will be hidden in the Steam build of the game.

Discord: Opens the invite link to the Discord server in your default web browser.

Quit: Quits the Game.

Return: Returns to gameplay. You can also press the ESCAPE key.

Status: The Status Page shows your stats as both a description and their numerical value. This is very useful when evaluating whether you should attempt a skill check or not.

Save/Load: These menus are nearly identical, but serve the purposes of saving your game and loading. You have access to unlimited pages of save slots. However, you can only access pages 1 through 9 directly. You'll have to use the arrows to navigate to further pages.

You may save or load at any time. It is recommended to save often and in different slots. The game autosaves every twenty lines, you can find these in the 'Auto' tab of the Load menu.

Preferences

This menu allows you to control how the game is presented. This is the biggest of the Pause Menu pages. Where the text in the image below says "Mouse over for details", the game will show more information if you hover any of the options.

Include: This menu allows you to change what kind of content scenes are allowed to happen. If you are playing on desktop, you can hover over each one for a description of what the tag allows

Character Art/Scene Art: This option determines whether or not the art is animated or not.

Side Images: This option determines whether or not the character's face appears in the text pane. The side images are used to display facial expressions that are otherwise not displayed on the character art.

Display: Determines whether the game is in fullscreen mode or not.

Volume Bars: Each of these options controls the audio volume for the game for a specific kind of sound. Each one is self explanatory. The Dragon can be independently toggled. You can also use Mute All to turn off all sound. Toggling it again will move them back to where they were before you toggled the function. Due to a bug with the Ren'Py engine, if you have a volume slider set to 0 before toggling the function, it will set it to 100% when unmuted.

Text Seed: Controls how fast the text of the text pane types.

Auto-Forward Time: This controls how fast the game will move from one page to the next when in autoplay mode.

Skip: Allows you to control what content is skipped when using the fast forward function.

Custom Names: Allows you to disable the nickname feature on all characters.

Mechanics

Base Stats

Ravager is a Role Playing Game where some decisions will increase a corresponding 'Stat' level. Certain actions will need a high enough Stat level to be successful.

Strength: Will help you physically overpower your foes, and win in a direct battle.

Methods to Gain: Eating food and people, or failing Strength skill checks (and learning from the experience).

Charm: Makes it easier to intimidate, deceive, think around mental attacks, and be diplomatic.

Methods to Gain: Advancing your goals through dialogue or failing Charm skill checks (and learning from the experience).

Potency: Measures your virility, and aids in certain special circumstances.

Methods to Gain: The first time you have sex with most characters, but not upon subsequent encounters.

Cruelty & Mercy: Govern your reputation to others, and how willing they are to join you. They are two separate scores, not two ends of an axis.

Methods to Gain: Treating someone with vindictiveness or kindness, and they are able to tell others about it (or you leave evidence behind that others can find).

Act Specific Resources

These resources are only available within specific Acts of the game. The gameplay of Ravager is broken up into five separate Acts. They mark significant points within the story and gameplay changes between them as the story evolves. For more information on Acts, see the Walkthrough Section.

Treasure [3, 4]: It is used to build upgrades to your lair, or increase the Morale of your Hordes.

Methods to Gain: As a dragon, the primary way to gain Treasure is to steal it from others.

Morale [3, 4]: During Acts 3 and 4, you have military units called Hordes. Each of these has a tracked Morale, which is used to do things with that horde. Morale can be increased by giving them treasure or captives.

Methods to Gain: In Acts 2 and 3, you will have the ability to give Treasure and Captives to your hordes to raise their morale by 1 point. Not every Horde wants every Captive. For more information, see Managing Morale. In act IV, you will have the ability to spare or pillage conquered provinces. If you pillage them, you gain 1 point of morale.

Prosperity [4, 5]: Prosperity's function is part of the upcoming act V.

Methods to Gain: In act IV, you will have the ability to spare or pillage provinces. If you spare them, or they are already under the control of a faction that you have recruited, you gain Prosperity.

Wounds

In Dark Fantasy mode, sometimes you will make a poor choice or put yourself in harm's way. This will usually cause you to take a wound. You heal a wound at the end of each Act. If you accrue three wounds, you will get a game over.

Captives

Captives are the damsels in distress that you can bring to your tower. Some can be invited willingly while others will require cajoling. Beyond that, they, as a general rule with some exceptions, have three main states; Happy, Unhappy, and Broken.

Events

Lair Events

Every time you sleep, or return to your lair from elsewhere, you will get a single lair event. These are pulled from a queue of events that are waiting to happen, so sometimes you will need to sleep or explore more before seeing them. They include:

- Completion of construction projects.
- Arrival of visitors to your lair.

Dream Events

Similar, but separate, are dream events. These are scenes that happen while you sleep. You get a choice of what you want to dream about. These can contain story relevant information.

Dynamic Events

When visiting a captive or one of the hordes in your lair, you can get a single dynamic event. Like lair events, only one of these can happen at a time, so sometimes revisiting someone will unlock new content. Dynamic events include:

- Captives visiting one another.
- The followup to gifting a captive to a horde.

Walkthrough

This section gives an overview of content in each act. Each Act is broken down into subsections. At the top of longer sections are Quicklinks boxes that link to them. Each subsection has a link that takes you back to the top of the Act.

A Stat highlighted red in an Important Stats infobox indicates that is the last time it can be gained or the last time it can be used (depending on which box it's highlighted red).

Act I - The Prologue

Act I is simple and straightforward, acting as a prologue. It introduces you to the world and some of the main characters.

Important Stats
Can gain:	Strength, Charm, Potency, Mercy, Cruelty
Can use:	Strength, Charm, Cruelty

In the beginning you are born and meet your 'mother', Princess Adeline.

- [Nestle closer to the Princess] (Charm)
- [Bite the Princess] (Strength) → [Spit fire in her face] (Cruelty)
- [Mount her]
 - [Pout] (She orders her servant to pleasure you.)
 - [Bite the Princess] (Strength) → [Spit fire in her face] (Cruelty)

She briefly leaves, and you meet her Handmaiden. There are chiefly two variations of how the interaction ends;

- Eat the meal brought to you: (Strength, Mercy)
- Fuck the handmaiden: (Cruelty, if you didn't pout)

Afterwards you confront the current Regent, Balthorne, who betrays the Princess.

- [Fool the Regent] (Charm 1)
 - [Bite the Regent's dick off] (Strength 1)
- [Roar at the Regent] (Cruelty 1)
 - [Bite the Regent's dick off] (Strength 1)

After leaping out of a window, you must evade the guards as you make a city escape.

- [Hide]
 - [Scale the Building]
 - [Freeze in place] (Charm)
 - [Pounce] → [Kill] → Escape! (Strength)
 - [Pounce] → [Take her, gently] → [Leave] → Escape! (Potency, Mercy)
 - [Pounce] → [Take her, gently] → [Kill] → Escape! (Potency, Strength)
 - [Pounce] → [Take her, roughly] → Escape! (Potency, Lose Enid)
 - [Dive over the side-gate]
 - [Hide under a cart]
 - [Pick off one of the guards] (Cruelty)

- [Subdue them and make good on your escape] → Escape! (Mercy)
- [Climb up and into a window] (See [Scale the Building] above)

Once you've escaped, Act I ends, healing a wound, if you sustained any, and giving you a story cutscene. Then begins Act II and some open world exploration.

Act II & III - The Open World

	Act II	Act III
	Important Stats
Can gain:	Strength, Charm, Potency, Mercy, Cruelty	Strength, Charm, Potency, Mercy, Cruelty, Treasure , Morale
Can Use:	Strength, Charm	Strength, Charm, Potency, Mercy, Cruelty, Treasure, Morale

In Act II the game becomes open-world. You maintain access to the same areas in Act III, while some of the available scenes change. As there is so much overlap, the two Acts have been combined into a single section of the walkthrough. Please pay careful attention to the bracketed Act for act specific scenes.

In this Open World segment of the game, you can explore the realm, interact with people, and search for a lair. There is a persistent countdown between Acts II and III. This is how long until the Regent's hunters find you. If this countdown reaches 0 in Act II, you game over. Once it reaches 0 in Act III, you proceed to the final event of the Act, which leads into Act IV, if you survive.

To resolve the events of Act II, you must find a lair, so you can start to build up your power base beyond increasing your own abilities. There are three potential lairs, one to each area. Each one has an associated faction that can be allied, at the cost of a sacrifice.

1. The Sunken Temple - Lowlands
2. The Abandoned Mines - Highlands
3. The Ancient Spire - Mountains

After you claim a lair, Act III begins, and 7 days are added to your countdown. You can capture or recruit many of the NPCs you met previously or have your first interaction with them after you get a lair.

The Realm

As scenes can become long, the top level options within each area link to the detailed breakdown of the individual scenes. You can then click the title of the scene to jump back to its parent area. This allows you to quickly find the details of any given scene in an area.

It is important to note that the breakdowns do not give you the results of every choice of a scene, but lets you know that kind of stat ups and stat checks can be found within a scene. Explore different paths and see what you like best.

Upon bringing Marie-Anne back to your Lair after a less than charitable time in Mercenary Gathering, she will be in an Unhappy state. If you wish to change this so that she is in a happy state, you can go to her and ask how she is. This will prompt a Morale check from the Kobold Horde. If they have 2 or more Morale, your Kobold Horde Leader will offer to go and retrieve some of Marie-Anne's belongings to make her happy. She will realize that you aren't quite so bad afterall and apologize for her rudeness.

If you do not have Mina already, you will have no option but to place it in the treasury, valued as one point of treasure. Once Mina has been recruited, you can go to the hoard by summoning your attendant, and then give it to her. This Dress is the only way to move Mina from her Unhappy state to her Happy one. If your hoard hits 0 treasure, the dress has already been spent and cannot be given to Mina.

Recruiting the Wolfmen

1. Strength 4	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Captive: Naho• Horde: Wolfmen

The initial scene is not repeatable. The Reprimand followup scene is, however. Do note that the two scenes have different sex scenes, if you aim to fill out the gallery.

Initial Meeting

When you visit the Wildlands, continue in spite of the howling. Choose any of the next options, and get ready to fight. The first time you fail this fight, she will take mercy on you and you gain 1 strength. A subsequent loss results in game over.

- [Attack!] (Requires STRENGTH 4)

Afterwards, decide what to do with Naho:

- [Kill her] (Strength), Lose Naho

 - [Act III] [Take control of the pack]
- [Leave her] (Mercy)

If you do not take over the pack or kill Naho, and return to the Wildlands, you will get the Reprimand variant of the scene.

Reprimand

Upon returning to the Wildlands, Naho will challenge you again. You can state that you are here for her or [Act III] her pack. Either results in her attacking you. At the end, you have the option to physically overwhelm her or fuck her into submission. Either progresses you to the same choice.

- [Turn her over to her pack] ([Act III] Cruelty), Wolfmen/Naho.
 - [Act III] Presents option [Take control of pack] again.
- [Act III] [Take control of the pack]
- Withdraw

You do not gain mercy for letting her go a second time. If you turn her over to the pack, you will be able to return and [Take Control of the Pack] later.

Sab and Inej are ready to infiltrate Bastion and the Inquisitrix' room specifically. Follow them through the sewers and into the city. You'll emerge into the streets and be set upon by guards. You'll have the option to attack them, follow the Rogues up the building, or escape over the city wall. Attacking them is successful, but does not give strength. It then presents the other two options.

They will infiltrate the Inquisitrix' chambers while you cause a distraction in the foyer. You'll be set upon by guards again, but the Inquisitrix will send them away and introduce herself as Heloise.

Regardless of your choices, you'll find yourself speaking only the direct truth to what she has asked. For several responses, she'll gloat of her victory. At the last moment, you'll be able to resist. If you have 4 Charm, you can twist the truth that you're there for sex. If you have 6 Potency, you can resist the magic directly and speak your mind.

Provided you resisted, the Rogues will sneak up behind Heloise and knock her over the head. Sabetha will suggest taking Heloise home with you. If you choose to do so, you won't be able to carry home your 2 Treasure. Thankfully, they'll be so kind as to grab it for you! If you tell them where you live, they'll drop it off.

If you did not purchase the Traps upgrade for your Lair beforehand, they'll steal all of your Treasure when they arrive. If you did, you'll capture them instead. You still lose out on the treasure, however.

The Other Heist

[Optional] Captured Cuchilla (The Drunk)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• 0-3 Treasure• [Optional] Piss off Mina (The Merchant)• [Optional] Lose Mina (The Merchant)• [Optional] Piss off Rhyll

Upon bringing Mina (The Merchant) to your lair, learning her name, and having visited her at least once, you can start this quest by visiting her again. She will have been working on a plan to rob the mercenaries of some loot they recently acquired. If you have also captured Cuchilla (The Drunk), she will join the heist. The quest has variation with a few key choices.

The Fight

Upon approaching, you'll find some of the mercenaries dueling. You'll be invited to join as spectacle. You can choose to fight the proposed five men, or take on ten for greater reward, as the larger battle gives Mina (The Merchant) time to steal more.

- 5 Men - Any Strength
- 10 Men - 6 strength

Failing the strength check still results in the additional treasure, but also gives a wound. Regardless of how many you're fighting, you'll have the option of either killing or humiliating a pair of Rhyll's men. This gives you a Cruelty or Mercy point respectively.

The Fuck

If you have Cuchilla (The Drunk), you can propose to Rhyll that, beyond fighting, dragons also fuck. Cuchilla (The Drunk) will present herself as planned. Regardless of how you take her, this will result in Mina (The Merchant) having more time, and thus more treasure.

The More Fucking

At the end of these options, Mina (The Merchant) is captured and her plot revealed. You can choose to fuck her to try and maintain your cover, and thus get more time for your kobolds. Do note that doing this will piss her off and prevent you from negotiating to fuck her vaginally back at your lair.

The Flight

The last important choice is whether you try to negotiate with Rhyll, or run away. Negotiating with Rhyll requires 4 Charm. If you are successful, you will infuriate Mina (The Merchant), but can recruit Rhyll and his mercenaries later. For more information on how to handle Mina (The Merchant) being upset, see the quest "The Dress".

Negotiating fixes your reward from the quest at 1 treasure. If you instead choose to flee, you gain gold based on the table below.

Action	Treasure
Fight 10 Men	+1
Fuck Cuchilla (the Drunk)	+1
Fuck Mina (the Merchant)	+1

Deal with the Mercenaries

Requirements	Rewards
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1. [Optional] 1 Treasure2. [Optional] Cruelty 4 OR Mercy 43. [Optional] Strength 6	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• [Optional] 7 Days added to Act III timer• [Optional] Horde: Mercenaries

Crashing the Bar brings you to the front door, where two mercenaries stand guard. You're presented with two choices to handle them.

- [Scare them off] (Mercy)
- [Attack them] (Cruelty)

Upon entering the bar, you'll meet the leader of the Hundred Banners, Captain Rhyll. Here is where you make the fundamental decision of how you wish to deal with the mercenaries

Attack Rhyll

Attacking Rhyll is a difficult task that will test the dragon's strength, at the highest difficulty of 6, and will always inflict a Wound, even when successful. If you fail, it is game over, as Rhyll takes the dragon's life. However, if you do manage to kill him, you will have successfully thrown the mercenaries into chaos. This has an effect in Act IV, and prevents you from accessing Gutter's Cove for the rest of the game. Do be aware that you will be locked out of capturing Cuchilla (The Drunk), if you have not captured her by this point. This can also lock out recruiting Mina (the Merchant), if you have so far not intervened with her issues in Papers Check.

Recruiting the Hundred Banners

If you avoid attacking him, Rhyll will offer you a choice of meals. The only one of note is the choice of desiring the most dangerous game; man. Rhyll will oblige, and you'll gain Cruelty upon consumption of the poor sod.

Upon asking your questions, you'll have three options to recruit the Hundred Banners to your side. All three options give you an additional 7 days, as Rhyll's men disrupt Maelys' (The Huntress) attempts to hunt you. It is only through the promise of something greater that he will join you, however.

- [Riches] -1 Treasure
- (Mercy 4) [Glory] Gain Horde: Mercenaries, Promise of Exclusive Contract
- (Cruelty 4) [Power] Gain Horde: Mercenaries, Promise of Free Hands

As Act V is not currently implemented, there is no consequence for promising Exclusive Contract or Free Hands, at this time.

Rhyll's Arrival

Considering their history together, it's understandable that Mina (The Merchant) would object to the hiring of the Hundred Banners. When they arrive at the lair, Rhyll announces them. Mina, quite flustered, approaches and demands to know why they're there. Upon being informed by Rhyll that they now share an employer, she will make it an issue that either they leave or she does. You are then presented with the following options;

- [Leave, Rhyll] Keep Mina, lose Mercenaries
- [Leave, Mina] Lose Mina, keep Mercenaries
- [Capture her] Keep Mina, Mina becomes Unhappy, keep Mercenaries
- [She's yours] Lose Mina, keep Mercenaries, gain Mercenary Morale

It is recommended to look into the quest The Dress, if you wish to keep Mina.

If you sleep after the second time with the Incest and Femdom flags enabled, you will see a new dream option - focusing on the texture of your scales.

When you revisit Heloise, she will have a talk with you about what has happened, and its implications. You will have the option to terminate this questline if you really want to. Otherwise, move Heloise to nicer conditions and it will continue.

Your next visit to Heloise will see new surroundings, and a new look for her. Choose whatever you like in the ensuing conversation, and enjoy the following scene.

Upon the first night of Act IV, the child will be born.

Valzira Route

After completing the Witch Raid quest, you will have captured the witch of the swamp; Valzira. You can attempt to converse with her, but she has little reason to reveal her motives to her enemy. Still, as an elf, she'll do fine as Malice's mother.

Visit her in her cell and rape her. Go to visit her again and she will reveal the pregnancy with great hatred for you and your kind. Have fun making use of her again, if you please.

If you sleep at this point, and have the Incest and Femdom flags, you will have the option of viewing a new dream. Make sure to focus on your scales.

You will receive another scene where Valzira attempts to poison herself and abort the child. However, due to world altering power of the naga, she will be unsuccessful.

War Council and Consort

After your showdown with Maelys, you reawaken in your lair. One of your horde's leaders (chosen randomly) will give you a damage report. You will be introduced to a 'war council' consisting of the leaders of your hordes and your lair faction (if you have completed their quest).

Your war council will consist of:

- Kobolds - Always
- Wolfmen - If you have recruited them.
 - If you promised them [Bitches] but have not gifted them any captives, they will start with a Morale penalty.
- Mercenaries - If you have recruited them with POWER or GLORY.
 - If you have not given them any Treasure, they will start with a Morale penalty.
- Proteans - If you are in the Sunken Temple and have gifted them the Abbess.
- Infernals - If you are in the Abandoned Mine and have gifted them the Inquisitrix.
- Malagar - If you are in the Ancient Spire and have gifted him the Witch.

You will be able to choose who to lead your kobolds in battle. This does not change who their representative is when you visit them in your lair.

- Petruk/Grokkan (if alive) - He will let you choose between sparing and pillaging.
- Issa (if recruited) - He will always spare territories.
 - Special: Selecting this character gives the kobolds a bonus 1 morale, as you cannot control their actions.
- Breaker (if the torture chamber built) - He will always pillage territories.
 - Special: Selecting this character gives the kobolds a bonus 1 morale, as you cannot control their actions.
- Kralak (random kobold, if Petruk/Grokkan is killed at the end of Act III) - He will let you choose between sparing and pillaging. However, as he is not popular, Kobold Horde Morale is reduced by 1.

After that, the council will disband and you will be prompted to rest. When you rest, you have the option to choose a favourite captive to act as your consort. Consorts do not provide mechanical benefits, but you'll unlock variant scenes and some really cute interactions with them.

Conquest

Once you have slept, you can summon your council and begin conquest. The realm is divided into territories, and each of those territories has a Challenge Rating (CR). After selecting a territory, you will be able to choose which of your hordes you want to attack it with. A horde requires morale greater than or equal to the CR of the territory to succeed. Whether you succeed or fail, your Horde's Morale will be reduced by 1 for losses and spent resources. If a horde has Morale 0, they will not be selectable as an option.

If you were successful, you'll be given the choice what to do with the territory:

- You may let your horde pillage it, restoring their Morale (+Cruelty).
- You may spare it, increasing the Prosperity of your kingdom (+Mercy).

Prosperity is a new stat that has no immediate use, but will be important in Act V. Once the battle is over, you will return to your lair. After a good night's rest (and some possible time with your consort), you'll be able to launch another attack on a different territory. The conquest sequence ends when you choose to attack the capital, Pale Rock. See Return to Pale Rock for more information.

If you need to review Horde Morale, see the Hordes Section.

Quests

Raising the Apocalypse

Requirements	Rewards
1. Completed: Fathering the Apocalypse	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Malice's Temperament

The story of your Naga child will continue on the first night of Act IV, and will play out slightly differently depending on who her mother is and if you've chosen her mother as your consort. Congratulations, you're a father!

Now you have the responsibility of raising her. You'll have several scenes to interact with her and determine how she's raised before the finale of Act IV.

Primary Scenes

These scenes affect Malice and her personality. It is ideal to see both scenes before the Act IV finale.

Kobold Horde

You can find her by visiting the kobolds (or one will come to notify you, if you don't visit them first). She has slain one of the Kobold's pigs and is attempting to eat it. You will have the option to tell her that stealing from others is wrong, or to specify that stealing from you specifically is wrong.

In the Halls

After you visit an unhappy Captive, Malice will ask you about the women you keep captive, and how their position relates to the earlier given lesson. She has several questions here, and you'll want to answer carefully. If you do not have an unhappy captive, this scene will not trigger and alternate logic based on the first scene will be used.

Optional Scenes

These scenes have no effect on Malice herself, but can provide interesting insight.

Mercenary Horde

If you visit your Mercenary Horde, you'll find Malice practicing her swordsmanship with some of Rhyll's men. If you end the scene breaking one man's arm, you'll gain 1 Cruelty. Any other ending results in 1 Mercy.

Talking with Mother

If your lair is in the Sunken Temple and you have unlocked Mother, you can visit and you'll find Malice talking to her.

Result

Your choices in these interactions will affect her future interactions with you and others, hopefully for the better. Malice has one of three temperaments at the end of Act IV, as determined below. If you did not trigger the second primary scene by visiting an unhappy or broken captive, you instead need to consult the second table. Your daughter is likely to revisit you the last night of Act IV. This scene will play out differently depending on your choice of consort, and your previous interactions with her.

wish to. He will give you a magical treatment to enable you to evict the wisp from his host. The scene will automatically take you to the swamp and you'll get your beloved captive back at the end.

Return to Pale Rock

Pale Rock: Preparation

Your generals will put forward proposals for how they can help prepare you for the assault. The faction that you choose will gain Morale, as well as special options in the battle to come. If you choose a horde to help you prepare for the assault, you will get a special sequence if you use them in battle, and they will always pass their Morale check. The proteans/infernals/warlock can only be used if you let them help you prepare.

You will have a few private moments to say a farewell of sorts to your consort. If you do not have one, you'll have a little time for personal reflection, instead.

That done, your chosen general will appear, and prepare you for battle.

Pale Rock: Assault

Pale Rock is split into a series of stages. In each stage, you are presented with a tactical dilemma. You will be able to choose between:

1. Doing it yourself, with an appropriate stat check. If this check fails, you will be given the choice to approach the task in another way.
2. Get a horde to deal with it. If they do not have any Morale left, they will still succeed, but they will suffer significant losses in the process.
3. Brute-force the problem with the application of large amounts of fire. This will reduce the Prosperity of your future kingdom.

The stats and hordes used are based on the dilemmas you face:

Stage	Stat	Horde
Bridge	Cruelty 6	Not available yet
Gates	Strength 6	Kobolds
Interior	Charm 6	Mercenaries
Streets	Mercy 6	Wolfmen
Keep	Potency 6	Proteans/Infernals/Warlock

Pale Rock: Showdown

After gaining access to the keep, you will have a showdown with Regent Balthorne. Do as you please in this segment.

The public version of the game ends after your showdown with Regent Balthorne.

Act V

Important Stats

Can use:	Morale, Prosperity

Reunion

If Adeline is conscious at the end of the showdown, your conversation with her will start at her chambers. Otherwise, it will begin in the dungeons.

You will have a large set of branching dialogue options; these will depend on your actions and what you have heard in your current playthrough. At the end of it, you will have the option to accept Adeline (and 'promote' her, if applicable), or deny her (and 'demote' her). If she ends up in her chambers after your decision, you may sleep with her lovingly. If not, you may sleep with her anyway.

The game currently ends after this point. Act V will be expanded soon.

Lairs & Factions

Lairs

The lair is home to you, your Hordes, and your Captives while you prepare to conquer the Realm. When you claim and lair and explore it, you will discover a unique Faction the Dragon can choose to make an alliance with. Once you unlock a Faction's representative by fulfilling their unlock condition, they will count as a Horde under your command. You can give them Captives to improve their Morale. Only one lair can be chosen per playthrough.

In your Lair you can summon your attendant, the Kobold Horde Leader. This will give you the option to give him a new name, change the title they refer to you by, or make something at the cost of 1 Treasure:

- [Traps]: Protect your Hoard from thieves. See Bastion Heist for more information.
- [A Sacrifice]: 3 STRENGTH
- [An Idol]: 3 CHARM
- [Torture Chamber]: Torture scenes
- [A Bath]: Unlock the ability to heal

Only one of each can be purchased. To gain the benefit, you must rest for the night or return to your lair from elsewhere.

Managing Morale

There are three ways to increase a Horde's morale or a Lair Faction's Power.

- Give them treasure (Unavailable for Lair Factions)
- Gift them Captives
- [Act IV] Let them Pillage Territories

To give a Captive or Treasure to a Horde, [Survey your Horde] in your lair and choose the one you want to interact with. You will no longer be able to interact with Captives you give to a Horde, but may get additional sex scenes of the horde interacting with them in addition to the morale gained. If you do decide to give them a captive, be aware that you can not take them back. Some captives give extra scenes as horde gifts. In the current version, not all captives can be given to all hordes.

Captives

The Captives are individuals you can capture and bring back to your lair for sex and other interactions. They can be gifted to your Hordes to increase Morale and unlock special sex scenes, but doing so makes the Captives otherwise unavailable to you for the rest of the game. Most scenes are only possible after learning their names, so be sure to talk to each after you capture them. Listed below are all the current Captives and their main erotic content.

Note: As the game is a work in progress, some scenes are partially animated or voiced. The animated and voiced checkboxes are only ticked for scenes that are fully animated or voiced.
